

FAIRFAX COUNTY POLICE DEPARTMENT

ACTIVITY REPORT

OCTOBER 15, 2010

ACTIVITIES REPORTED THROUGH OCTOBER 13, 2010

PUBLIC INFORMATION OFFICE -- 703-246-2253

There are four sections in this report: Section I: WEEKLY ARRESTS FOR SELECTED CHARGES Section II: MAJOR INCIDENTS; Section III: PROPERTY CRIMES; and, Section IV: ANIMAL RELATED INCIDENTS. Sections are appropriately identified. Within the sections, incidents are organized by station, then by type of offense. They are listed alphabetically by street address.

Addresses shown indicate blocks and not specific locations. Thus an entry showing Chain Bridge Road 4100 would mean the 4100 block of Chain Bridge Road, not the address 4100 Chain Bridge Road.

An asterisk (*) before an item indicates that a news release was distributed on that offense.

COUNTYWIDE

UPDATE: SERIAL BURGLARIES: Police officers went door-to-door notifying residents in the Hunter Mill Road area of a burglary, and an attempted burglary, that occurred in their neighborhood this morning. Police responded to a report in the 1800 block of Horseback Trail around 7 a.m. on Tuesday, October 12. The resident stated that cash was removed from her purse overnight. Following a neighborhood canvas, officers determined a burglar(s) had attempted to enter at least one other home. Mason District police officers also canvassed the Mantua area neighborhood on Thursday, October 7 and received two reports of additional burglary attempts and one larceny from a vehicle. Detectives believe these crimes may have occurred in connection with similar incidents that took place Friday, October 1. Police continue to ask the public to lock their doors, secure their valuables and get updated information on the Police Department Website at www.fairfaxcounty.gov/police.

HOMICIDE: Police are investigating a murder that occurred on Thursday, October 7 around 3:53 p.m. The victim, Yong S. Yun, 61, of 5781 Ladues End Court, died of trauma to the body. Homicide and Crime Scene detectives are investigating. His car, a gold 2002 Lexus 470 SUV, was missing from the home but was recovered just after 11 p.m. on Monday, October 11 in the 4300 block of Americana Drive. The vehicle was taken to the police crime scene lab for processing. Detectives ask anyone who may have seen someone inside or around the vehicle to contact Crime Solvers by phone at 1-866-411-TIPS/8477, e-mail at www.fairfaxcrimesolvers.org or text "TIP187" plus your message to CRIMES/274637 or call Fairfax County Police at 703-691-2131.

K-9 CRAWL: In observance of National Domestic Violence Awareness Month, Fairfax County Police Department's Victim Services Section is sponsoring a K-9 Krawl; a 5K walk created to raise awareness of issues surrounding domestic violence. The event will be held on Saturday, October 16 at the Fairfax County Government Center, parking lot C. Check-in is at 8:30 a.m. and the walk begins at 9 a.m. The Krawl is open to pet owners and their pets, and highlights the connection between domestic violence and cruelty to animals. The National Coalition against Domestic Violence (NCADV) emphasizes that pets are not immune from domestic violence. Batterers often threaten, injure, maim, or kill their partners' pets for the purpose of revenge or control within relationships. Bring your dog or borrow one from a friend and join the Fairfax County Police Department, McGruff, the Crime Dog and Gracie, a Fairfax County Police Bomb Dog for this FREE event that includes goodie bags and domestic violence resource tables. The first 100 people to register get FREE t-shirts. For more information about the walk or to register, please call the K-9 Krawl information line at 703-814-7009. For inquiries from the media, call Carroll Ann Ellis, Director of Victim Services, at 703-246-2141 or the public information office at 703-246-2253.

ANIMAL CONTROL DIVISION

ANIMAL SHELTER RECEIVES AWARD: The Fairfax County Animal Shelter received accolades from the Metropolitan Council of Governments on Friday for its trap, neuter and return (TNR) program for outdoor cats in Fairfax County. As part of the program, feral cats are humanely trapped, spayed or neutered, vaccinated and placed back into managed colonies with citizen caretakers. Shelter staff and volunteers received the Animal Services Committee Humane Education Award for its Helping Community Cats class, a workshop held up to three times a month in Fairfax County to teach citizens how to participate in the shelter's trap, neuter and return program. After citizens attend the class, they are eligible for the free spay/neuter and vaccination program for feral cats that dwell in Fairfax County. Funding for the program is supplied by private donations through the Virginia Department of Motor Vehicles' Animal Friendly License Plate sales from which $15 dollars from each plate sale is remitted back to the jurisdiction in which the driver resides.

Since the program's inception in October of 2008, more than 200 citizens have attended the class and more than 800 feral cats have been TNRd in Fairfax County. "Our goal is to offer citizens a humane solution to reduce the number of outdoor cats and kittens that are already living in their back yards. Through spaying or neutering these cats, we can reduce the number of felines that enter our shelter each year," says Karen Diviney, Director of the Fairfax County Animal Shelter. Michelle Hankins, Community Outreach Coordinator for the Animal Shelter teaches the class along with shelter volunteers Chris Kopp and Susan Spaulding. The trio received the award on behalf of Fairfax County. The shelter's Helping Community Cats class is part of the national Alley Cat Allies "Every Kitty – Every City Program," which raises awareness about outdoor cats. Humane traps for the TNR program have been supplied by the Friends of the Fairfax County Animal Shelter and Alley Cat Allies. For more information about TNR or attending a Helping Community Cats class, contact the Fairfax County Animal Shelter at (703) 830-1100.
